CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS OF THE QUEST CLUB OF FORT WAYNE, INDIANA.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

Name and Object

Section 1. This Club shall be known as Quest Club, located in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Section 2. The object of this Club shall be the study and discussion of the application of the scientific principles of salesmanship, advertising, sales management and business management in its various forms; to study the economy of improved methods of business management, to develop a closer relationship amongst its members and to promote harmony and co-operation in improving the efficiency of each one in his line of business endeavor. And to that end it shall be the intent and purpose of this Club to avoid taking part in the discussion of political issues or questions of a partisan character.

ARTICLE II.

Membership

Section 1. The membership of this Club shall consist only of active members and membership shall not be transferable.

ARTICLE III.

Government

Section 1. The government of this Club shall be vested in a Board of Governors consisting of fifteen members to be elected for a term of two years at the annual meeting of the Club. It shall be the practice to elect eight and seven governors at each election in alternate years. The term of office of each governor shall begin immediately upon his election and continue until his successor is elected and qualified.

Section 2. The Board of Governors shall have the power to fill vacancies occurring on said Board during any year with the provision, however, that a person so elected as a governor shall be elected only to hold office until the next regular election of governors.

Section 3. The Board of Governors shall meet within ten days after adjournment of the annual meeting of the Club at which time they shall elect from their own members a president, secretary, a treasurer and the chairman of each of the standing committees. They shall also elect from the membership of the Club a Secretary. These various officers shall be elected for a term of one year or until their successors are elected and qualified.

ARTICLE IV.

Meetings

Section 1. The regular meetings of the Club shall be held as often as and at such time and place as may be specified in the By-Laws.

ARTICLE V.

Amendments

Section 1. The constitution of the Club may be amended at any regular meeting of the Club by a vote of two-thirds of all of the votes cast. Proposed amendments shall be furnished to the Secretary, signed by at least six members and mailed to each member at least one week before action is taken.

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I.

Membership

Section 1. Suggestions of names of desirable prospective candidates for membership may be presented to the Board of Governors by any member of the Club. This Board shall first pass upon the qualifications of such proposed candidates and, if considered favorably, the membership committee shall invite such person to become a member. Two negative votes, however, shall reject. The membership fee shall be twenty-five dollars ($25.00) and shall be paid to the Secretary of the Club by any applicant for membership before he may be declared a member by the Board of Governors. When such declaration shall have been made, the Secretary shall enter upon the roster of membership the name of the applicant as a member of the Quest Club.

Section 2. Any member who shall be guilty of misconduct that may compromise his Club associates or bring disgrace upon the Club, or injure its reputation, or frustrate its purpose, or who shall violate its constitution and established rules, may be suspended or expelled by a vote of the majority of the members of the Board of Governors, but not until he shall have been given due notice of the Board's intention to consider the question of his expulsion or suspension. Such notice shall include an invitation to be heard in his own defense. And if he desires it, he shall be given an opportunity for such hearing.

Section 3. The resignation of a member shall be made in writing to the Board of Governors, but no resignation shall be accepted unless the member presenting it has paid all current dues to the Club.

Duties of Officers

Section 1. President: It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings of the Club and of the Board of Governors; to enforce these By-Laws; to cast the deciding vote in case of a tie; to call special meetings of the Club or of the Board of Governors; and to perform such other duties as pertain to his office.

Section 2. The Vice-President shall, in the absence of the President, preside at any meeting of the Club or of the Board of Governors and shall be vested with all the powers of the President when the latter is absent or incapacitated.

Section 3. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep an accurate account of the proceedings of all meetings of the Club, to countersign all contracts and documents entered into by the Club; collect all funds due the Club and remit them to the Treasurer; to draw disbursement orders on the Treasurer as directed by the Board of Governors; see that the Club receives suitable publicity in the local press and in any other way that is in accordance with the aims and objects of the Club; and to perform such other duties as usually and regularly devolve upon the office of Secretary.

Section 6. Any member so suspended may be reinstated by majority vote of the Board of Governors by payment of all arrearages and current dues.

Section 3. Any member of the Club who shall refuse to prepare a paper when so requested by the program committee, or who shall absent himself from five consecutive regular meetings without a reasonable excuse satisfactory to the Board of Governors, shall be deemed an undesirable member and shall be dropped from membership at the expiration of the term of six months for which his dues shall have been paid.

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I.

Name and Object

Section 1. This Club shall be known as Quest Club, located in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Section 2. The object of this Club shall be the study and discussion of the application of the scientific principles of salesmanship, advertising, sales-management and business management in its various forms; to study the economy of improved methods of business management; to develop a closer relationship amongst its members and to promote harmony and co-operation in improving the efficiency of each one in his line of business endeavor. And to that end it shall be the intent and purpose of this Club to avoid taking part in the discussion of political issues or questions of a partisan character.

ARTICLE II.

Membership

Section 1. The membership of this Club shall consist only of active members and membership shall not be transferable.

ARTICLE III.

Government

Section 1. The government of this Club shall be vested in a Board of Governors consisting of fifteen members to be elected for a term of two years at the annual meeting of the Club. It shall be the practice to elect eight and seven governors at each election in alternate years. The term of office of each governor shall begin immediately upon his election and continue until his successor is elected and qualified.

Section 2. The Board of Governors shall have the power to fill vacancies occurring on said Board during any year, with the provision, however, that a person so elected as a governor shall be elected only to hold office until the next regular election of governors.

Section 3. The Board of Governors shall meet within ten days after adjournment of the annual meeting of the Club, at which time they shall elect from their own members a president, vice-president, a treasurer and the chairman of each of the standing committees. They shall also elect from the membership of the Club a secretary. These various officers shall be elected for a term of one year or until their successors are elected and qualified.

ARTICLE IV.

Meetings

Section 1. The regular meetings of this Club shall be held as often as and at such time and place as may be specified in the By-Laws.

ARTICLE V.

Amendments

Section 1. The constitution of this Club may be amended at any regular meeting of the Club by a vote of two-thirds of all of the votes cast. Proposed amendments shall be furnished to the Secretary, signed by at least six members and mailed to each member at least one week before action is taken.

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I.

Membership

Section 1. Suggestions of names of desirable prospective candidates for membership may be presented to the Board of Governors by any member of the Club. This Board shall first pass upon the qualifications of such proposed candidates and, if considered favorably, the membership committee shall invite such person to become a member. Two negative votes, however, shall reject. The membership fee shall be twenty-five dollars ($25.00) and shall be paid to the Secretary of the Club by any applicant for membership before he may be declared a member by the Board of Governors. When such declaration shall have been made, the Secretary shall enter upon the roster of membership the name of the applicant as a member of the Quest Club.

Section 2. Any member who shall be guilty of misconduct that may compromise his Club associates or bring disgrace upon the Club, or injure its reputation, or frustrate its purpose, or who shall violate its constitution and established rules, may be suspended or expelled by a vote of the majority of the members of the Board of Governors, but not until he shall have been given due notice of the Board's intention to consider the question of his expulsion or suspension. Such notice shall include an invitation to be heard in his own defense. And if he desires it, he shall be given an opportunity for such hearing.

Section 3. The resignation of a member shall be made in writing to the Board of Governors, but no resignation shall be accepted unless the member presenting it has paid all current dues to the Club.

ARTICLE II.

Duties of Officers

Section 1. President: It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings of the Club and of the Board of Governors; to enforce these By-Laws; to cast the deciding vote in case of a tie; to call special meetings of the Club or of the Board of Governors, and to perform such other duties as pertain to his office.

Section 2. The Vice-President shall, in the absence of the President, preside at any meeting of the Club or of the Board of Governors; and shall be vested with all the powers of the President when the latter is absent or incapacitated.
